The Democratic caucus held at the P. hall last evening the following delegates were elected:—State—C. L. Gates, J. M. Kelley, A. G. Small, J. C. Herrick; alternates—E. G. Burrows, A. H. Calkins, Rye Adams, Fred Ober. District—E. K. Seaver, D. N. Hutchins, B. C. Hoyt, J. A. Carpenter; alternates, John Tyndall, E. S. Story, H. P. Drown, L. C. Bullard.

The election of Col. Niles as Department Commander of the G. A. R. makes him the third Morrisville man to be thus honored. Capt. Frank Kenfield has filled the position and also the late Col. Doty. Two Presidents of the State Woman's Relief Corps, Mrs. Florence Gates and Mrs. Clara Niles, were also from Morrisville. This is unusual and shows that Morrisville, as well as in other directions, has the right kind of material for these important positions.

The opening play, "An American Girl," is a big laugh maker, while "Wife in Name Only," "James Boys in Missouri," "Wanted by the Police," "Lights and Shadows of a Great City" and "Polly of the Circus" goes to make a fine selection of plays which will be produced in Morrisville during their engagement here the week of June 17th.

P. A. COMMENCEMENT

42d Annual Graduation Full of Interest and Draws Large Attendance

Junior Reception

Last Friday evening the Junior Class tendered a reception to the members of the faculty, Senior class and a few invited guests at Academy hall, about 45 being present. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion. A three course dinner was served with Mrs. W. M. Stevens as caterer and the young ladies of the Junior class as waitresses. During the dinner Lawson's orchestra furnished music. Among the many features of the evening's entertainment were vocal solos by Robert Gordon and piano solos by Miss Grace Bedell.

Baccalaureate Sermon

The Commencement exercises of the Academy opened with the Baccalaureate sermon by Rev. W. E. Baker at the Methodist church last Sunday evening. At the peal of the organ, played by Miss Lula Towne, the graduating class entered the auditorium, led by Class Marshal Albert Smith and were ushered to seats in the front of the church, which were reserved for them and draped in their class colors.

The sermon was an exceptionally strong and earnest address and was attentively listened to by the large audience. Rev. W. T. Best of the M. E. church offered prayer and Rev. L. E. Peabody of the A. C. church read the scriptures and pronounced the benediction.

Taking his text from Matt. 26:8, "To what purpose is this waste?" the speaker pointed out the misconceptions which led the disciples to ask this question. Many are asking the question today.

Too frequently in connection with, or criticism of the work of the educator, some misconceptions regarding education were pointed out and enlarged upon.

That the days of schools and colleges are wasted time; that education makes snobs, but in this connection the speaker stated that the truly educated man is a humble man and the greater his learning the humbler he becomes, for the more he learns the more he is able to appreciate his littleness beside the infinite sweep of what is yet unlearned; another misconception is that education is a cramming the mind full of facts and data to be poured forth upon the examination paper. Then followed a discussion of the rightful conceptions of education. Education, as the word implies, is a leading out and the object of education is to enlarge the width of life, to broaden the range of vision, to deepen the powers of comprehension. Mr. Baker closed with an appeal to the graduates to master the science of living with men. To this end is all education and only if we fail in this can our period of training be said to have been spent in vain. A special feature of the service was the duet, "Holy Father Guide Their Footsteps," by Mrs. G. M. Powers and Mrs. H. Niles Jackson, and the anthems by the M. E. choir.

Sanborn Prize Speaking

There was a large attendance at the annual Sanborn Prize Speaking contest at Academy Hall Monday evening and the audience was well repaid by the excellent program, which showed much steady and careful training on the part of the contestants.

The judges were Rev. R. H. Trill of Hyde Park and Dr. V. M. Hardy and Mrs. Laura Titus of this place. The first prize, a Webster's International Dictionary, was awarded to Rena Merrill; the second, British Poets of the Nineteenth Century, to Kenneth Dodge and the third, Anthology on English Poetry, to Mertie Merritt. Following was the program:

Piano Solo, Lillia Slayton
Aunt Sophronia Tabor at the Opera.

Class Prophecy, Bernard Daniels
Address to Undergraduates, Gordon Brooks

Attention is called to the fact that Friday, June 14, is Flag Day. Let Old Glory float from every place of business and residence in town.

HYDE PARK

Have you bought a Cook Book?

Remember the caucuses next Tuesday evening.

Col. McFarland is in New York on business.

Campbell reunion at J. Q. Perry's next Saturday.

Graduation and alumni reunion brought many former students and friends here.

Mrs. Caroline Keler spent a few days the past week with Mrs. Cornelia Small.

Russell Page shipped a blooded Guernsey cow to Holyoke, Mass., last evening.

Mrs. R. W. Hulburd is in Boston for a few days—gone down to see the girls start for Europe.

But few took advantage of the Lake Champlain excursion last Sunday. Too cold a day for a sea voyage.

Harry Parker, of Schenectady, N. Y., spent a few days here recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McFarland announce the engagement of their daughter Grace to Mr. Otis Hutchinson of Niagara Falls, New York.

"I wouldn't have been here but for my lawyer," remarked a prisoner in the jail yesterday to a party of ladies who were inspecting that institution.

Robt. Putnam left this morning for Chicago, where he will take in the big convention and spend a few weeks with relatives. Mrs. Putnam accompanied him as far as Swanton, where she will make a short visit.

The new jail was opened for business Monday and at ten o'clock had two occupants. One has been taken to Windsor and the other, Hollis Lanpher, will be in Jailor Wakefield's charge for the next three months.

At the Democratic caucus last evening Frank Keeler and Oscar Campbell were elected delegates to the State convention and Frank Strong and Walter Strong to the district convention. Each set of delegates are alternates for the other.

Allen G. Fletcher, chaperoned by T. C. Cheney, was in town last Friday and looked over the Court House, pronouncing it a splendid one and one that the county should be proud of. Of course there were no (visible) politics in the visit.

The marriage of Leon Farr of Morrisville this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Whitecomb. Rev. W. T. Best of Morrisville tied the knot in his usual good style. Heartiest congratulations from many friends.

The call for a Republican caucus to elect three delegates to the State Convention, three delegates to the district convention and nine delegates to the county convention, together with alternates to the same, and also a town committee, has been posted. The caucus will be held at the town hall, Tuesday evening of next week, at 8 o'clock. Every Republican voter should make an effort to be present.

The officers elected at the alumni reunion last evening are: President, Ernest Mills; Vice Pres., James Felcher; Sec'y, Mrs. Lillian Leach; Treas., Mrs. Reba Abbott; Ex. Com., L. H. Noyes, Prof. Wilson, Harry Foss, Mrs. Ethel Holbrook, Miss Martha Tyndall; Obituary Com., D. H. Scribner, Mrs. Lillian Noyes, Miss Addie Poes; Membership Com., Geo. Blake, Thos. Finegan, Archie Pratt. In the presentation of diplomas, reported elsewhere, Prof. Wilson's name should take the place of that of Rev. Mr. Trill.

While going to Barre last Sunday, Oscar Campbell's auto collided with a Ford driven at a reckless rate by Israel Cohen of Montpelier. The machines were going in opposite directions and rounding a curve about four miles this side of Montpelier, Campbell tried to get out of the way of the approaching car, but his forward wheel was struck violently, tearing off the tire and doing some damage to the mud guards. Oscar Campbell and A. B. Collins, the occupants of the front seat, escaped injury, but the occupants of the rear seat, Mrs. Oscar Campbell and daughter and Miss Mabel Collins, were thrown over the side, escaping serious injury, but were considerably shaken up and somewhat bruised. Help was obtained from Barre and the car again put in commission, the parties returning home next morning. The account given in the dailies stated that the Cohen car was hit by "a large touring car from Mighgate and escaped injury" is the distorted account of the accident.
